Trust to Nature.

A great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to home, office or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, in fact in every weary, thin and thin-blooded person, do their work with great difficulty. As a result fatigue comes early, is extreme and lasts long. The demand for nutritive aid is ahead of the supply. To insure perfect health every tissue, bone, nerve and muscle should take from the blood certain materials and return to it certain others. It is necessary to prepare the stomach for the work of taking up from the food what is necessary to make good, rich, red blood. We must go to Nature for the remedy. There were certain roots known to the Indians of this country before the advent of the whites which later came to the knowledge of the settlers and which are now growing rapidly in professional favor for the cure of obstinate stomach and liver troubles. These are found to be safe and yet certain in their cleansing and invigorating effect upon the stomach, liver and blood. These are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Bloodroot, Mandrake root. Then there is Black Cherry bark. The medicinal principles residing in these native roots when extracted with glycerine as a solvent make the most reliable and efficient stomach tonic and liver invigorator, when combined in just the right proportions, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Where there is bankrupt vitality—such as nervous exhaustion, bad nutrition—and thin blood, the body acquires vigor and the nerves, blood and all the tissues feel the favorable effect of this sovereign remedy.

Although some physicians have been aware of the high medicinal value of the above mentioned plants, yet few have used pure glycerine as a solvent and usually the doctors' prescriptions called for the ingredients in varying amounts, with alcohol.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is a scientific preparation compounded of the glyceric extracts of the above mentioned vegetable ingredients and contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Aged Lawyer Tortured.

Henry Blackman Plumb, the 77-year-old lawyer and historian of Warrior Run near Wilkesbarre, Pa., who was tortured by burglars in the effort to force him to reveal the supposed hiding place of his money, is recovering.

Two of his ribs were broken and the soles of his feet burned, while his wife, bound and helpless, was compelled to lie on the floor near and see him tortured. Despite the efforts of several detectives no clew of the five masked men who committed the outrage has been found.

The house is some distance from the nearest neighbor, and the burglars broke in the back door. Plumb and his wife were aroused by the crash. He seized an old musket which had not been discharged in 35 years and reached the top of the stairs as the five burglars appeared at the bottom.

"You halt, or I'll shoot!" he shouted. Without answering, the men sprang up the steps, evidently not seeing the musket. Plumb, aiming full at them, twice pulled the trigger, but the charge failed to explode and the next moment he had been overpowered and hurled to the floor, the fall breaking two ribs.

Two of the burglars held him and the other three overpowered, gagged and bound Mrs. Plumb with the strips into which they tore the bed sheets.

The burglars found a gold watch and $35, all the money that Plumb had in the house, but they were not satisfied. Thinking he had more hidden, they threatened to kill him if he did not tell where the money was. He assured them they had all.

"We'll make you tell," one of them cried, and the old man was thrown upon a chair, bound to it, and then a lamp flame was applied to his feet. It scorched the flesh and caused excruciating agony.

He protested that he had no more money, and that they might torture him until he was dead, but they would find no more. But they were heartless. Both feet were burned, and they did not desist until the old man swooned.

As they were leaving one of the burglars, with some little compassion, bent over Mrs. Plumb and said: "I'll telephone for a doctor to come," but no medical man showed up.

It was two hours before Plumb regained consciousness and was able to undo his bonds. Then he released his wife and they summoned help.

Jubilee over King's Wedding.

Spain is preparing for rejoicing on a magnificent scale on the occasion of the marriage of King Alfonso to Princess Ena of Battenberg. Premier Moret announced Saturday that some of the features of the early programme have been changed, but the essential features remain. The marriage will take place in Madrid, May 31 in the Church of San Jeronimo, at 11 a. m. The Princess will enter Spain May 24, being met at the frontier by the king, the ministers and the royal guard, who will escort her to the Pardo Palace.

The foreign envoys and princes will begin to arrive about the same time.

The solemn ceremony of signing the marriage contract will take place at the Pardo Palace May 30.

The city will be given over to festivals for a fortnight before and after the wedding. The fetes will include gala performances, millitary reviews, a parade of representatives of the Spanish provinces in typical costumes, a royal bullfight, balls and receptions. Great public interest is taken in the preparations.

The king and his bride will remain in Madrid eight days after the marriage in order to participate in the festivites. They will then spend their honeymoon at La Granja Palace, later going to San Sebastian.

The fact that an English princess is to become queen of Spain is not regarded as having any political significance, although the increased intimacy between King Edward and King Alfonso and the fact that the policies of Great Britain and Spain have recently followed similar lines are considered to be evidence that the marriage is strengthening political relations which for a time were strained. The marriage is popular with all classes in Spain.

The Danish envoy and a brilliant suite arrived today to represent Denmark at the wedding, being the first of the foreign deligations to reach Madrid.

Father Gapon's Remains?

The mystery of the fate of Father Gapon apparently was cleared up yesterday by the discovery of a corpse, which has almost positively been identified as that of the former priest, hanging in the upper chamber of a lonely villa in the summer suburb of Ozerki, Finland. The villa was rented April 8 for the summer and a deposit paid by an unknown man from St. Petersburg, who, after visiting the house several times in company with a workman, disappeared April 11, taking the key with him.

The proprietress of the villa, alarmed at the nonappearance of the tenant, notified the police, who entered the house. Breaking down a door they were confronted by a body in a long coat hanging from a nail, the feet touching the floor. Decomposition of the face made positive identification difficult, but the features resembled those of Gapon and the clothing corresponded with that worn by the missing labor leader.

As the usual symptoms of strangulation were absent, it is conjectured that the man was killed elsewhere and his body brought to the villa on the night of April 10. This would agree with the date of the execution of Gapon given in information of the secret police and with the death sentence of the former priest as announced in recent dispatches from Berlin.

A CRITICAL PERIOD

INTELLIGENT WOMEN PREPARE

Dangers and Pain of This Critical Period Avoided by the Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that the most critical period in a woman's existence is the change of life, and that the anxiety felt by women as this time draws near is not without reason?

If her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy or congestion of any organ, it is at this time likely to become active and, with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden.

At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to begin their destructive work. Such warning symptoms as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, dizziness, headache, dread of impending evil, sounds in the ears, timidity, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life when woman's great change may be expected.

We believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the world's greatest remedy for women at this trying period.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound invigorates and strengthens the female organism, and builds up the weakened nervous system as no other medicine can.

Mrs. A. E. G. Hyland, of Chestertown, Md., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham, says:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I had been suffering with a displacement for years and was passing through the change of life. I had a good deal of soreness, dizzy spells, headaches, and was very nervous. I wrote you for advice and commenced treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you directed, and I am happy to say that all those distressing symptoms left me, and I have passed safely through the change of life a well woman."

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Her advice is free and always helpful to ailing women.

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stickles, of Miletus W. Va., "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' druggists.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 14, 1906.

RARELY has the Chief Magistrate of the nation been brought to book so ruthlessly as President Roosevelt was, Saturday, when Senators Bailey and Tillman denounced him as a "quitter" on the rate bill, and then brought proof of their assertions. Messrs. Bailey and Tillman proved that President Roosevelt had entered into a secret deal with Senator Tillman to pass the rate bill with the Bailey limited court review amendment by a combination of 26 democrats and 20 republican votes. Ex-Senator William E. Chandler, of New Hampshire, was the go-between for Senator Tillman and President Roosevelt, as Senator Tillman refused to go to the White House. Through Mr. Chandler the deal was made, and both sides were pledged to it. At the moment when success was absolutely assured, President Roosevelt abandoned the fight. The result was that the Allison compromise court review amendment was adopted Saturday, without division, to the great joy of Senator Aldrich, and the whole "conservative" contingent. In Mr. Tillman's exposure of his negotiations with the President he incidentally quoted ex-Senator Chandler as saying that the President had charged Senators Knox, Foraker and Spooner with trying to ruin the rate bill with ingenious amendments. Senator Lodge, alarmed by this revelation, used the telephone to ask the President about it. Then he announced on the floor that the President denounced it as "unqualifiedly false." The issue as to the falsehood now lies between the President and ex-Senator Chandler. It is notable that the President made no denial of the charge that he had entered into a secret deal with Mr. Tillman and had then quit without notice to Mr. Tillman or to Attorney General Moody, who was also in the deal. The attacks of Messrs. Bailey and Tillman upon the President were evidently concerted. Mr. Bailey was the first to deliver his broadside. He mercilessly flayed Mr. Roosevelt as a quitter on tariff revision and on other great questions that have come up until finally he has quit on the rate bill at a time when he had an opportunity to mount to the plane of Jefferson, Jackson and Lincoln. His closing words were the most sensational that have been uttered in the Senate in many a day. He said: "Let us have no more talk in the Senate and talk in the country about this iron man. He is clay and very common clay at that." There was a movement of astonishment on the floor and in the galleries at these words, but later when Senator Tillman read his detailed revelation of executive instability, if not double-dealing, and its humilating result, it was plain that the Texas Senator had not gone further than the facts warranted. He said:

"Notwithstanding a just indignation for a past wrong, I pocketed my pride, and in the interests of a great cause entered into negotiations with the President. If he had stood fast we would have won out. * * * Mr. Chandler said the President had stated that he had come to a complete disagreement with the senatorial lawyers, who were trying to injure or defeat the bill by ingenious constitutional methods, naming Senator Knox in addition to Senators Spooner and Foraker. * * * As for his treatment of me I shall say nothing."

He closed by asking whether or not the President should be entitled to the glory of the legislation which was conceived in a democratic convention. He would leave the answer to the people of the country.

THE question of veracity has been clearly raised between the President and former Senator Chandler. President Roosevelt denied, Saturday, through Senator Lodge, that he had ever declared to Mr. Chandler that Senators Knox, Spooner and Foraker were trying to injure and defeat the rate bill by ingenious constitutional arguments and amendments antagonistic to the rate regulation policy. Mr. Chandler, through Senator Tillman, issued a statement last night in which the substance of his interview with the President is repeated and the criticism by the President of the Senators named is reasserted. In brief, Mr. Chandler declares Mr. Roosevelt did say what the President, through Mr. Lodge, now denies, and there the matter rests for the present. Before the statement was issued, Messrs. Chandler and Tillman were in conference for several hours. They discussed the whole situation, and Mr. Chandler, while realizing the importance of the step he was taking, consented to the issuance last night of parts of a document which he had prepared formerly for Senator Tillman. The latter explained that he had himself insisted upon the preparation of this before he would consent to treat with Chandler as the President's representative in arranging an agreement between the republican supporters of the Administration and the democrats of the Senate respecting an effective railroad rate regulation measure. In consenting, therefore, in the issuance of a portion of this document last night Mr. Chandler reiterated his former assertions respecting Mr. Roosevelt's expressed opinion of Senators Knox, Spooner and Foraker. In connection with the revelation made in the Senate Saturday by Senators Bailey and Tillman, this issue between the President and former Senator Chandler has caused the most profound political sensation Washington has known in years.

THE New York Board of Education has resolved to forbid the collection of money from pupils or teachers to buy presents for superintendents or other officers, and also forbid book canvassing in the schools. Such action should be taken by every board of education in the country.

THE synchronous announcement that Mr. Cleveland will never be a candidate for the presidency again and that Mr. Bryan in all probability will be in 1908 will be received with conflicting emotions of regret and pleasure by the democrats of the country.

FROM the view point of a man up a tree the President in the rate bill matter appears to be in a hole and that it would be well for him if he could pull the hole in after him.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Railroad rate conferences followed each other in rapid succession at the White House today. Attorney General Moody was one of the earliest callers. Before he left Senator Allison came in and joined the consultants and soon after that Senators Long and Clapp appeared. The most prominent feature of the conference was the silence which followed. Senator Allison was the first to emerge from the President's office. He had nothing to say and did not think he would at any time during the day. "Can you explain the apparent discrepency between the statements made by the President and by Senator Tillman and ex-Senator Chandler?" the venerable Iowa Senator was asked. "I might" he replied with a twinkle in his eye, "but I do not think I have time." With that he fled to his cab. "I do not care to discuss the matter at all," said Attorney General Moody when he left the office building a few minutes later. "If there is any statement to be given out the President will probably make it." "Is there any likelihood of your leaving the Cabinet because the President placed you in a humiliating position by going over to the other side on the rate review amendment, as suggested in one of the morning papers?" was the next question asked the Attorney General. "If I do not feel aggrieved over the matter, I do not think it is any one else's affair," he said. "There is no difference whatever between the President and myself." Secretary Loeb announced at 11 a. m. that there would be no statement issued from the White House or from the Senate with authority of the President. A prominent republican Senator who followed the conferees into the President's office said that the latter was in "a very uncomfortable position."

After a long conference with Attorney General Moody this morning, President Roosevelt announced through Secretary Loeb that he would make no statement today in reply to the charges made by Senators Tillman and Bailey that he negotiated with them through ex-Senator Chandler for an alliance with the democrats on the railroad rate bill, and then deserted them.

A shipper may be compelled by a railroad to pay the published tariff rate, although a lower rate was quoted by a railroad agent accepting the shipment. This was held by the Supreme Court of the United States today in an opinion by Justice White in the case of the Texas and Pacific Railroad Company versus Morgan, Dryden & Co.

The cry of "fake" has been raised against the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad in the matter of the alleged sale of its coal properties. The charge has been formally presented to President Roosevelt by W. P. Rice, of New York, vice president of the American Caramel Company. Rice was in conference with President Roosevelt on the subject last week. He declared that the alleged selling price, $5,000,000 in 30 annual installments, proved, on its very face, that the deal was not a bona fide one. He submitted other evidence in confirmation of his charge. The matter has been referred by the President to Chas. E. Hughes, who investigated the New York insurance scandals.

It is understood that the President has dictated a letter to Senator Allison, which may be presented to the Senate later, in answer to Senator Tillman's charges.

Judge Waddill enjoined Zell from further proceedings in the State Court in the Quaker City. Suit was brought by the Litigous Zell against E. B. Smith and Co., to determine the ownership of the securities. The time for the hearing on the rule for contempt against Zell, has been enlarged and continued.

Run Over by Autos.

David B. Tennant, of Oatlands, Loudoun county, and of Richmond, was very painfully, though it is not thought seriously, wounded in an automobile accident near his home Saturday evening. Mr. Tennant, his wife, her mother, Mrs. John W. Bayne, of Washington, and a friend were in the auto when Mr. Tennant alighted to assist the driver of a horse which had been frightened by the approach of the machine. Mrs. Tennant in her excitement opened the throttle, and with increased speed the auto struck Mr. Tennant, threw him to the ground and passed over both legs. No bones were broken, though Mr. Tennant was very seriously bruised and fainted from pain. Mrs. Tennant was thrown, but not hurt. The others were not hurt.

Susan Reid Williams, the four-year-old daughter of City Attorney R. Gray Williams, of Winchester, narrowly escaped being run over and killed by a swift automobile in the street Saturday night. The child was playing in the street when the machine dashed along. She fell directly in front of the automobile, the occupants of which brought it to such a sudden stop that they were thrown out. "Please don't run over me," said the little girl in pitiful tones as she lay just in front of the wheels. She was picked up uninjured.

As the general election law stipulates that nothing but the names of the candidates shall be on the ballots, the city committee will not be able to comply with the request of the council.

The Rate Bill Controversy.

Ex-Senator Chandler confirms in detail Senator Tillman's statement of President Roosevelt's agreement with the democrats in regard to railroad rate legislation.

Senator Tillman gave out Saturday night a statement made by Senator Chandler in which the latter declared that President Roosevelt had used the very words contained in the statement which the President declared on Saturday to be an unqualified falsehood.

The statement which ex-Senator Chandler has furnished to Senator Tillman corroborates in the minutest detail everything that Mr. Tillman asserted in the statement he read to the Senate Saturday afternoon. Neither the President, Attorney-General Moody nor anyone else has attempted to deny the duplicity of the President set forth in the statement Mr. Tillman made. The only thing denied by Mr. Lodge in the Senate after his telephonic conversation with the President Saturday afternoon was the assertion contained in one paragraph of Mr. Tillman's statement that Mr. Chandler had been told by the President that he had been much troubled by the advocacy of an unlimited court review by some of the lawyers of the Senate, and that Senators Knox, Spooner and Foraker were trying to injure or defeat the bill by ingenious constitutional arguments.

In view of the denial of this portion of Mr. Tillman's statement, Mr. Tillman, with the consent and approval of Mr. Chandler, yesterday gave out that portion of Mr. Chandler's written statement, which was the basis of what Mr. Tillman said respecting this detail.

President Roosevelt's expected statement about the rate bill alliance that fell through did not materalize yesterday. Mr. Lodge said in his speech that something from the President was likely. Word went out yesterday from the White House indicating that this was in contemplation, but later it was said there would be nothing.

Allison Amendment Adopted.

The actual accomplishments by the Senate on Saturday consisted in the completion of the consideration of the Allison amendment to the railroad rate bill covering the questions of a review by the courts of the orders of the interstate commerce commission. There were several of these provisions, and all were accepted as presented or suggested by the Iowa senator, showing an almost perfect agreement among republican senators. Indeed, one of the noteworthy features of the day was the practical unanimity of the republicans. They not only voted almost solidly for the Allison amendment, but were just as nearly united against opposing propositions. Senator La Follette continued to act with the democrats.

Today's Telegraphic News

Death of Carl Schurz.

New York, May 14.—Carl Schurz, the well-known statesman, who has been seriously ill since Wednesday last, suffering from pulmonary œdema, died at 4.35 o'clock this morning. All the members of his family were at the bedside when death came.

Carl Schurz was born at Liblad, near Cologne, Germany, March 2, 1829. He was educated at the Gymnasium of that city and at the University of Bonn. In 1848 he became associated with Professor Gottfried Kinkel in editing a revolutionary journal and subsequently he participated in the insurrectionary movement in south Germany. At the surrender of the fortress of Restadt he escaped into Switzerland. After sundry adventures as a teacher and journalist he reached the United States in the early fifties. He first settled in Philadelphia and then went to Wisconsin, where, in 1856, he made republican campaign speeches in German. The next year he was defeated as the republican candidate for lieutenant governor of that State. In 1859 he began to practice law in Milwaukee. In 1860 he was a conspicuous member of the convention that named Abraham Lincoln for the office of president of the United States. In 1861 he was the American minister to Spain. He was made a brigadier general of volunteers in 1862 and took part in the second battle of Bull Run, under his old commander of Prussian revolutionary days, Franz Sigel. A year later he was commissioned major general and led the Eleventh Army Corps at Chancellorsville. He took part in the battles of Gettysburg and Chattanooga, having temporary command of General Howard's corps at Gettysburg. In 1869 Schurz was elected a United States Senator from Missouri In 1876 Hayes made him Secretary of Interior in his cabinet. In 1884 he supported Cleveland, as he did in 1888 and in 1892. He believed strongly in William Jennings Bryan and supported him in that campaign. Again in 1904 Schurz made speeches for the democratic ticket. In the last mayoralty campaign in New York he indorsed William M. Ivins, the republican candidate.

Terrible Explosion.

Bridgeport, Conn, May 14.—With a sound like the rumbling of thunder and a shaking of the earth, like an earthquake, and believed for a time to be one, followed by a blinding flash of lurid light that penetrated every corner of the city, the contents of four of the huge magazines for the storage of explosives on the reservation of the Union Metalic Cartridge Company, three miles north of this city, blew up at 4:25 o'clock this morning. The rumblings and shaking of the earth were so violent that in many sections of the city people rushed from their houses in terror, thinking that an earthquake had shaken this section. Reports later indicated that the tremblings and rumblings resembling an earthquake had been felt in a radius of fifty miles or more of Bridgeport. No loss of life resulted in this city as a result of the explosion, and, so far as could be learned, no one was seriously injured, though every one was badly frightened, and many were shaken nearly out of bed, and hastened to get out the rest of the way. The damage done here consists principally of broken glass in many of the business places and houses, many broken chimneys and fallen plaster in houses and stores. One of the magazines exploded contained smokeless powder in large quantities. This powerful explosive exploded apparently first, causing such an impact that great holes fifteen or twenty feet deep in the earth are all that remain to tell the story of where the magazines stood. The buildings, which consisted of wood covered by corrugated iron, are completely swept away, no vestige of them being found in the locality. Near by great trees were uprooted and thrown many feet away. Rocks and stones were hurled with great force into the air, and dropped many feet away. The cause of the explosion, unless it was an earthquake, will probably never be known.

Wants President to Retract.

Atlanta, Ga., May 14.—Alfred C. Broom, of this city, has written an open letter to President Roosevelt in which he requests that the President retract the criticism passed upon the late President Jefferson Davis, in a word to Mrs. Davis, his widow, in order that she may die happy. The statement referred to was that Jefferson Davis was an arch traitor and akin to Benedict Arnold. In concluding Mr. Broom writes. "This done, Mrs. Davis will meet death with the sweet consciousness that she is the bearer of a welcome message. The scarred veterans of the lost cause will love you, and honor you, the reunited country will approve you and mankind will applaud your manly deed."

Russian Admiral Assassinated.

St. Petersburg, May 14.—The celebration of Russian May Day was marked by the assassination of Vice Admiral Kosmitch, commandant of the port of St Petersburg, by a workman, who stabbed the official while he was in the midst of a crowd of workingmen. The vice admiral had just been persuading the workingmen not to spend the day in holding demonstrations in honor of the May Day fetes, but to return to their work. He was accosted by one of the men who approached him. While addressing the Vice Admiral, the man suddenly thrust a rusty iron weapon into his side, penetrating the kidney. Vice Admiral Konsmitch fell to the ground with the blood flowing from his side. He was picked up and hurried to a hospital, but all efforts to save his life were futile and he died shortly afterward from an internal hemorrhage. The assassin made his escape by losing himself in the crowd. The workmen employed in the Admiralty were so impressed by the murder of the Vice Admiral that they immediately went back to their work. The employees of private factories and mills, however, continued the May Day detes, without interruption because of the assassination.

Large numbers of workingmen went out on a strike today. Work is at a standstill in all factorses. Troops and squads of police have been stationed at stragical points throughout the suburbs to prevent the strikers from entering the city and dispersing meetings.

Dropped Dead from Fright.

Milford Conn., May 14.—Patrick Doherty, a railroad employee who was in the tower of the New Haven Road with the signal operator, dropped dead of heart disease this morning. Mrs. Jefferson Davis.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, May 14.

SENATE.

When the Senate resumed consideration of the railway rate bill at 11 a. m. today, Mr. Nelson introduced a telegram from A. B. Stickney, president of the Chicago & Great Western Railway, protesting against the amendment inflicting fines and imprisonment against officers and agents of railways for rebate granting. He claimed that the punishment should be directed against the railway company itself, so that it would reach the "railway Czars and Grand Dukes, who live in New York," and not punish some poorly paid freight agent, who in an endeavor to comply with the demand for more revenue might be tempted to offer a rebate, as he declared it would as at present framed.

There were few absentees when the vice-president's gavel fell and the galleries were packed in anticipation of further developments on the senatorial incidents of Saturday.

The pending question was the amendment of Mr. Daniel, aimed to prevent the railways from introducing evidence before the court that could have been produced before the commission.

Mr. LaFollette offered a modification permitting the commission fifteen days to revise its decree, after appeal to the courts by the carrier.

Mr. Hale's motion to lay on the table was carried by a vote of 41 to 40. Senators Cullom, Hopkins, Knox, LaFollette and Warner republicans, voted in the negative.

The Daniel amendment was then laid on the table by a viva voce vote.

The Virginian offered another amendment requiring that all appeals from the commission's decree should be brought inside of thirty days, and not afterward.

This amendment and one offered by Mr. Morgan, providing for jury trials, were rejected.

Mr. Gallinger raised the point that under the clause requiring uniformity of accounts, officers of the railway would be prevented from keeping any memoranda not prescribed by the commission.

Mr. Nelson charged that a change in the provision would "open wide the doors to secret rebates such as have been enjoyed by the Standard Oil, and other great trusts."

Mr. Knox and Mr. Dryden contended that any personal memorandum kept by the president or secretary of a railway would be a violation of the law.

Mr. Knox called attention to the amendment recently adopted making the acts of officers and agents the acts of the principal.

Mr. Foraker urged an amendment prescribing that the requirements did not apply to "personal or private accounts."

"I'll accept that," exclaimed Mr. Nelson, "if it is further provided that these accounts do not relate to rebates."

Mr. Clay opposed an amendment offered by Mr. Gallinger, aimed to permit private memoranda. He declared that if a railway granted a rebate or made a campaign contribution, those accounts would not be kept upon the public books.

The New Hampshire senator thought that such accounts could be concealed under the heading of legal services. "Without meaning to refer to any one," retorted Mr. Clay, "I understand that such contributions have thus been concealed."

Mr. Gallinger then withdrew his amendment.

Mr. Lafollette offered an amendment providing for the ascertainment of the "fair value" of interstate carriers, by the commission. During its reading, the Wisconsin Senator demanded order. "Inasmuch as it seems that my amendments are awaited by a motion to lay on the table, by some republican colleague," he explained, "I would like the Senators to know how they are to vote."

Mr. Hale promptly moved to lay it on the table.

Mr. Lafollette jumped to his feet. "I know that several other Senators desire to discuss this amendment," he declared.

The amendment went to the table by a vote of 40 to 27.

HOUSE.

In the House, this morning, in order to develop the presence of a quorum, Representative Williams, democratic floor leader, demanded a roll-call, which consumed half an hour.

The House then, without further filibustering, took up business pertaining to the District of Columbia, the most important being the teachers' salary bill.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

The Baptist's.

The work went on in the Southern Baptist Convention at Chattanooga, Saturday, without notable incident. The interests of the Home Mission Board, of the Seminary and of the Sunday School Board were the topics of debate.

A brief report on the seminary was read by President Mullins, showing the general prosperity of the institution, but directing especial attention to the fact that the supply of ministers was not at all equal to the demand.

Hon. Joshua Devering, of Baltimore, said that one reason why so few men were entering the ministry was the growing opportunity for commercial success. They know that they can make thousands in business, whereas they must be satisfied with a few hundred in the ministry.

It is said that the committee will unanimously recommend Richmond as the next place of meeting, and Rev. A. J. Dickinson, of Alabama, as preacher of the annual sermon.

Letter to R. W. Arnold.

Alexandria Virginia,

Dear Sir: We are in partnership with it, Burt, N. Y., has had its paint experience.

Mr D Brookins, contractor, bought 18 gallons Devoe for 3 houses; returned 6 gallons.

That shows what it's worth, so far as covering goes; a half more than common paint. About half the houses in Burt are painted Devoe; the other half will be, as soon as they need paint.

We want your town same way, and will serve it same way. Are you ready yourself?

Yours truly,

Elks' Bazaar.

Everything is in readiness for a gala opening of the Elks' Bazaar tonight. The decorations are completed and this morning the ladies in charge were busy arranging for exhibition the many useful and ornamental articles that are constantly arriving at the hall. The doors will be thrown open to the public tonight at 6:45. At this hour the Lodge of Elks will meet in their rooms and proceed in a body to the Armory, where Mr. Chas. Bendheim with a few remarks will formally open the grand carnival. An immense crowd is expected tonight—the opening night—and the committee has provided a particularly interesting programme for the occasion. The Alexandria Light Infantry will attend as the guests of the Elks and there will be a competitive drill by sixteen members of the company. These men will be picked by Capt. Murphy and the judges of the contest will be Major Wm. M. Smith, Major Jas. E. King and Capt. Albert Bryan. The winner of the contest will be awarded a handsome prize by the bazaar committee. The first of the series of U. S. bonds to be disposed of will be drawn for at 10 o'clock to night.

The committee in charge of the disposition of the various prizes is composed of the following named gentlemen, Messrs. Geo. L. Simpson, Thos. W. Robinson and Chas. H. Callahan.

The Glassblowers.

The annual memorial services of the Alexandria branch of the Glass Bottle Blowers' Association were held at their rooms in the Alexandria National Bank Building yesterday afternoon. The oration was delivered by Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, pastor of the Methodist Protesant Church. Later a committee visited the cemeteries and placed wreaths on the graves of members.

Branch No. 68, Glass Bottle Blowers' Association, of this city, met Saturday night and elected Messrs. M. McDonald, William Wells and Smith Beckett delegates to the annual convention of the association, which will be held at Atlantic City, N. J., commencing the second Monday in June.

Freight Wreck on the Southern.

A freight wreck occurred on the Southern Railway at about 11 o'clock yesterday morning, near Whittles, about 18 miles north of Danville, and as a result traffic was delayed until about 10 or 11 o'clock last night. The wrecked train was the first section of No. 72, consisting of between 30 and 40 cars loaded with merchandise, northbound. The exact cause of the accident has not been ascertained, but it is supposed that the tender jumped the track and became separated from the engine. About half of the cars jumped the track and are now piled up in one congested heap. The track was torn up for a distance of several hundred yards. The financial loss will be heavy. No one is reported to have been injured seriously.

Last Run.

About 10,000 herring were brought to Fishtown this morning; they were caught by local fishermen. No one wanted the entire lot, and the cargo was taken to Washington. While no price was fixed upon the fish, it was said they would have been purchased for from $2 to $2.50 per thousand. Nearly every one who embarked in the fishing business this year has lost money. It is said to have been most unsatisfactory fishing season ever known in this section. The huckesters in market still exhibit a few shad, which sell at high figures.

Annual Council at Mt. Vernon.

The Mount Vernon Ladies' Association met for its annual council at Mount Vernon May 10. The regent, Mrs. Justine V. R. Townsend, presiding, and most of the vice regents were present. Since the last meeting Mrs. A. R. Winder, the vice regent for New Hampshire, has died. A considerable amount of business has been transacted during the meeting. Yesterday the ladies of the association attended services at Pohick Church at which Rev. Everard Meade is rector.

Episcopal Council.

The Episcopal Council of the diocese of Virginia will meet at St. Paul's Church, this city, at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Bishop Gibson will preside and about one hundred and fifty clergymen and lay delegates will be in attendance. The council will remain in session about three days, though there are few matters of real interest to the church to be acted upon at this session.

To Come to the Potomac.

Adams' steamer Comet has returned to port from a month's charter as a tender to Coulehan & Hogan's fisheries on the Susquehanna. After an overhauling the Comet will come to the Potomac to fill a charter with the Potomac Dredging Company. She is to be used for six months towing sand barges out of Piscataway creek into water deep enough for the tug Marion Cameron to take them in tow.

Yesterday.

The weather yesterday was warm, the mercury in the thermometer rising to 87° There was a stiff breeze during most of the day which tempered the heat somewhat. Many people were on the streets throughout the day and far into the night, and large numbers visited the city, via the electric trains and ferry boat. Many steam and naptha launches and sailing yachts were on the river.

The New Ferry Steamer.

Captain Milburn, of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, will leave Washington early tomorrow morning for Wilmington, Del., to take charge of the new ferry steamer Callahan which will leave the shipyard at that place about noon tomorrow for Washington. The Callahan is expected to pass this city Wednesday evening.

The Alexandrians who attended the meeting of Shriners in Charlottesville on Saturday night have returned, much pleased with their visit.

Rev. J. P. Stump, formerly pastor of the M. E. Church South in this city, but now stationed at Luray, preached the commencement sermon to the graded schools of that place, last week. There was a large audience, and the Luray News says the address was inspiring to the many present. Mr. Stump was one of the most interesting pulpit orators ever stationed in Alexandria, and all who were acquainted with him were sorry when the time arrived for him to be transferred to another field.

Mrs. W. R. Burnham and children, of Rivermont, and Mrs. W. E. Burnham, of Lynchburg, are visiting relatives in Alexandria, Braddock Heights and Washington.

Rev. J. J. May, of Immanuel Lutheran Church, of this city, is attending the services of the Missouri Synod in Baltimore.

Anti-Saloon Day.

Yesterday was set apart as "Anti-Saloon Day" in Alexandria. Temperance sermons were delivered by representatives of the State and National Anti-Saloon Leagues at the services in the Methodist and Baptist churches, according to the programme published in Saturday's Gazette. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon a well-attended meeting was held in the First Baptist Church, when forcible addressess were delivered by Rev. George W. Young, D. D., assistant superintendent of the American Anti Saloon League; Rev. J. W. West, of the State League, and others. There were large congregations in the other churches where representatives of the league delivered sermons, and the addresses were listened to with close attention.

The speakers were temperate in their remarks and made no attack upon any one. They averred that they merely wanted the laws now on the statue books enforced, and requested the good people of the city to vie with them in bringing about better conditions by causing all to obey the laws. The speakers wanted also to take the sale of liquor out of the hands of disreputable people.

The committee wishes to take this opportunity of extending its sincere thanks to the Alexandria Gazette, Mr. Geo. E. Markell, Mr. W. S. Harper, Miss M. H. Williams, Miss H. A. Stoutenburgh, and to our other friends for the able assistance they have rendered in this cause.

Police Court.

Nineteen persons, eight white and eleven colored, were before the Police Court this morning charged with various misdemeanors. Fines were assessed in some instances, the cases of others were continued, and some were dismissed with admonitions.

Two colored bicyclists arrested by Officer Nicholson charged with "scorching" on the streets, were fined $2.50 each.

Two men, arrested by Officers Bettis and Smith for failure to tap sewers and for allowing waste water to drain from their premises, had their cases continued.

He was about 60 years of age. Mr. Beamer was born in Clarke county. During his residence in Alexandria he made many acquaintances by whom he was justly esteemed.

Disorderly Negroes.

Three negroes, who had visited this city yesterday evening and drank themselves drunk, became disorderly after they left the city limits near Spring Park, and were aggressive and annoying to many ladies, gentlemen and children who were walking in the neighborhood. One of the darkeys drew a knife and threatened to decapitate another of the trio.

Pollard, present incumbents, and Mr. J. F. Birrell. The polls will be opened in Odd Fellows' Hall, on north Columbus street.

Demand for Fish Scales.

During the past few years certain manufacturers in the North have sent circulars to operators at Fishtown offering one dollar per pound for fish scales. They are used in the manufacture of buttons. As one pound would fill half a peck measure, no one, so far, has deemed the business profitable enough to embark in it.

New Cars.

Mr. Frank Lucas left here this morning for Philadelphia where he will wire up fourteen new cars recently built by the Brill Company for the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway. Seven of the cars are motors and seven are trailers, and they will form seven new trains for service on the road.

FINANCIAL

THE MONEY QUESTION IS MANY SIDED.

One of the phrases is "How to avoid the embarrassing situation of being short of ready cash, though you may have money at home." If you have a check book and a banking account you are never caught in such a situation. Why not carry a checking account with this Corporation? Your money is safer in bank than anywhere else. A bank account teaches, helps and encourages you to save. Paying bills by check is safer, as the check becomes a receipt for the debt it pays. A check book is more convenient to carry than a wallet filled with legal tender. If your check book is lost the Bank will give you another; when you lose your wallet the story is different. To have a bank account and pay by check gives you better standing among business men and strengthens one's credit. Study this question—look at it as long as you will; the opening of a Bank account is desirable and advantageous, and we tender you our services and facilities. CALL TO SEE US.

Fight in Zion.

A meeting at which John Alexander Dowie presided at Zion City yesterday afternoon was broken up by a number of followers of Wilbur Glenn Voliva, assisted by several outsiders, and before the crowd dispersed a general fight ensued.

Dowie was addressing an audience of 600 persons, and made the statement that the overseers of the Voliva faction were thieves and robbers. At once a number of those in the audience were on their feet, shouting, "No; you are the robber. Why don't you pay your debts?"

The disturbance became so violent that a Zion guard was sent to restore order. The guard took hold of an old man, who was loudest in his demands for Dowie to pay his obligations, and this was a signal for a fight.

A dozen men seized the guard and were about to drag him down the aisle, when Gladstone Dowie and Deacon Arrington mounted the platform and called on the audience to take their seats.

After quiet had been restored, Dowie again attempted to go on with the meeting, but he was jeered and called traitor and robber, until he finally decided to dismiss the audience.

Children Burned to Death.

In a fire that destroyed the residence of Marcus A. Woodward, at Clifton, near Pittsburg, Pa., Saturday night, two children, Margaret, 21 months, and Marcus, 8 months old, were burned to death. Their charred bodies were found in the ruins when the fire had burned itself out. The children slept in an upper rear room, and the place where the bodies were found was just beneath where this room was located. Mr. Woodward was reading in the library and upon smelling smoke he opened a door that led to the upper story. The flames and heavy clouds of smoke immediately enveloped him and drove him from the house. Repeated efforts to reach the children were baffled by the flames. In a few minutes the entire house was a mass of flames that a bucket brigade was helpless to cope with, and attempts at rescue had to be abandoned. A number of valuable art treasures, the property of Mr. Woodward, were also destroyed by the fire.

For Revision of Faith.

The feature of Saturday's session of the Methodist Episcopal General Conference at Birmingham, Ala., was the further discussion of the most important question that has so far come before the body.

It is proposed to name a commission, with one of the bishops as chairman, who shall confer with similar representatives of other branches of Methodism, looking to a revision or restatement of the twenty-five articles of religion of the church. The debate was so animated and the sentiment seems so divided, that it is premature to make any predictions as to the probable action. The debate was unfinished when the hour of adjournment was announced.

A good complexion is impossible with the stomach out of order. If pasty sallow people would pay more attention to their stomachs and less to the skin on their faces, they would have better complexion. KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA will digest what you eat and put your stomach back right in shape to do its own work. Kodol relieves palpitation of the heart, flatulence, sour stomach, heart burn, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King St.

Accidents From Lightning.

Four children were asleep in one room at Frank Beattie's home, in Eggleston township, nine miles from Muskegon, Mich., yesterday, when the house was struck by lightning. A four-year-old boy and six-year-old girl were stricken blind by the bolt, and both were also scarred about the abdomen, while the other two children were not touched.

George Dygert, aged thirty-five, living near Utica, N. Y., was killed by lightning Saturday night. Mr. Dygert was in his barn loft pitching hay. The bolt struck him on the head and went down to his shoes, tearing one to pieces. He fell through the chute into the manger.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackets, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copious y from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
